॥ अरुमदीयम् ॥

Samvat 2071 has begun very beautifully. Chatur Maas are also completed. Whatever Bhajan-Smaran Kirtan-Katha may have been performed by us during these pious Chatur Maas, would have been meaningful in our life. All devotees should cherish ardent faith, Nischay and Mahatmya of Maharaj in their lives.

Antahkaranrup Maya cannot disturb those who have well understood importance of Bhagwan and have cherished ardent faith of Bhagwan in their life. However, if there is any deterioration in ardent feelings, Maya attacks such persons rendering them unhappy. If a Satsangi is not strong in his Bhakti and devotion, a Kusangi is tempted to misguide him. But if a Satsangi is very strong cherishing ardent faith, nobody can speak any weak words about Satsang in the presence of such a Satsangi. Similarly, if a soul cherishes very ardent faith and seeks shelter of Bhagwan, Maya would not try to shake him. However, if a soul is weak in cherishing ardent faith, Maya would certainly shake him and resultantly such a man would be unhappy. A person who cherishes mature Nischay of Bhagwan, Maya is not capable of disturbing him. (Vachanamrit Loya-10)

So devotees, all of us should cherish ardent faith towards Shree Hari so that Maya cannot disturb us in any way. So Manan and Nididhya of this Vachamrit should be performed time and again.

Shikshapatri

The Epistle of Precepts

(based on Shatanand's Shikshapatri Arthadipika)

By Pravin S. Varsani

Text – 130

They shall worship, with due rites, Laxmi-Narayana and other images of Lord Shree Krishna installed by me in the prominent temples.

The Acharyas should serve and worship the Murtis of God installed in the big Sikhar-Bandha temples as well as the smaller temples and Havelis, by Lord Swaminarayan himself. He mentions Laxminarayan here simply because he wrote the Shikshapatri in Vadtal and so the idols of Laxminarayan, who preside in Vadtal temple are remembered.

This does not however imply any superiority or inferiority of any of the forms of God installed by Lord Swaminarayan, and so all other forms –Narnarayan, Gopinathji etc. should all be equally worshipped. All such forms should be served with love as explained by Vithalnathji, in accordance with Vedic rites.

Shatanand explains that this precept applies to all as God has said, 'Serve me with respect, bowing before me surrendering all parts of your body and serve in temples like a servant', thus specifying the ideals of a Bhakta.

Lord Swaminarayan during his stay upon the Earth built six major temples, installing various forms of God in them. At Ahmedabad and Bhuj he installed Murtis of Nar-Narayana. At Vadtal, Laxmi-Narayana as well as an image of himself called Hari-Krishna Maharaj were installed, Madan-Mohanji at Dholera, Radha-Ramana at Junagadh and Gopinathji Maharaj at Gadhada were installed by the Lord.

These are the presiding deities at each of the six temples. Along with these, Murtis of Radha-Krishna, Dharma-Bhakti, Surya-Narayana, Siddheswar Mahadeva and others were also installed, therefore service of such forms of God has been advocated here.

Text – 131

They shall give food to those people who come to the temple in need of food and treat them with due hospitality according to their means.

If any poor or needy person comes into any of the God's temples, then they should be given food and water and welcomed with respect. They should be given help, fruits, raw foods or cooked foods according to their ability.

Atri Smruti explains, 'A guest or stranger should never be left without food', hence in general terms anybody that comes to us for such help should be replenished and indeed any guest who comes to our house should be made welcome and offered such hospitality. 'Anna Daan' or donation of food is considered as great charity. One can refer to Anushan Parva of Mahabharat for the benefits of such act.

Text – 132

They shall establish educational institutions and appoint Brahmin scholars to impart true knowledge upon the Earth, as propagation of true knowledge is an act of great benediction.

They shall build schools, colleges and other such educational institutions, with living quarters for students. They should appoint Brahmins learned in poetry, grammar and the Sat-Shastras to impart this knowledge to them. These Brahmins should be looked after, giving them a place to dwell etc. in this way true Vedantic knowledge should be imparted to the students as such act results in great Punya (benediction).

Shatanand explains that to give knowledge to somebody is comparable to giving eyes to the blind – such is the Punya involved. Hemadri explains, 'Those who give food, oil for Divo (fire light) and clothing to a student receive the fruits of all good action.' Agni Purana explains that by helping a student through offering good, place to reside, etc. one receives the fruits of performing a Yagna. Similarly Sahita Sataka explains, 'Those who give their wealth, shelter, food, oil, clothing, place to reside and books to a student received great fruits which one cannot attain even through difficult or painful penance.' In this way 'Vidhya Daan' is considered great.

GREAT DEVOTEE OF MARU DESH

- Sadhu Purushottamprakashdas (Jetalpurdham)

.First Ahimsa Yagna in our Sampradaya was performed by Sarvavatari Shree Swaminarayan Bhagwan in Jetalpur. Devotees from distant places participated in this Yagna of 18 days. It was the year of drought and therefore Shreeji Maharaj offered grand feat to all with such nobility which is not possible even for a Chakravarti Raja. People could not resist themselves from the grandeur with which the whole Yagna was performed and the delicious taste of the sweet balls offered during the feast.

People of Marwad of Maru Desh situated at a distance of 300 kms. From Ahmedabad had arrived to spend the hard times of drought. As a result of the divine impact of Bhajan (Satsang) and Bhojan (feast) more than one hundred Haribhaktas adopted Vartamaan of Satsang. One of these Haribhaktas stayed there as Parshad rendering services to Shreeji Maharaj. Later on he became famous as brave devotee Vir Bhaguji. Another devotee became Sadhu and remained in the services of Maharaj as Nirdoshanand Swami and performed Vicharan in Muli Desh and performed the ritual of invocation of the idol images of Rokadiya Hanumanji in Jiragadh and of Shree Hanumanji in Dhamadka (Kachchh). Nirdoshanandji was Naishtik Bramcharaya Vratdhari. Both Vir Bhaguji and Nirdoshanandji are famous in our Sampradaya. Nirdoshanand Swami belonged to village Goliya of Bhinmal Taluka and Vir Bhaguji belonged to the village Morshim situated at a distance of just three k.m. from Goliya.

Even after the completion of Yagna of Jetalpur, Haribhaktas of Maru Desh stayed for about two months as none of them felt like returning to their Desh. When Shreeji Maharaj directed them to go back their Desh, haribhaktas of Vali region expressed their desire that, they would go home only when any saint is sent with them for performing Satsang in their Desh. Shreeji Maharaj directed Gurucharanratanand Swami, who was very strict, to accompany the devotees and to stay in their Desh. Accordingly, Swami accompanied them and reached village Dantiva near Bhinman after journey of few months. Swami stayed in the nearby villages; and got the devotees of these villages adopt Vartamaan of Satsang. With the blessings of Swami, some of the devotees performed divine Darshan of Shreeji Maharaj in their dream or while performing Dhyana. Gradually Satsang developed like anything. Strict temperament of Swami helped a number of devotees to adopt Kanthi and Vartamaan. After five decades from the return of Nirdoshanand Swami, Mukta of Commentary : Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan incarnated from Akshardham into this Brahmand and with a noble view that, Moksha Marg of Atyantik Kalyan of Jeeva remains available incessantly, Shreeji Maharaj got constructed temples and invoked His Own Foms, established Dharmvanshi Acharya as Guru and created scriptures for pure Satsang and Upasana. On accomplishing these three Gudh Sankalpas, Shreeji Maharaj returned to Akshardham.

Shree Hari Himself has performed Shram-Yagna by lifting stones and has worked hard with while remaining with the saints and devotees and constructed grand temples. This temples as models of best sculpture became the centres of Upasana. These temples constructed with the hard work of the saints and the devotees always echo Katha-Kirtan Aarti-Bhajan. They also thrive with the frequent visits of Haribhaktas and pilgrims. In their Katha-Mandap, streams of Gyan-Varta flow profusely and devout Haribhaktas and ladies devotees always throng together in its premises. By listening to Prabhatiya sung by the beautiful voices of the saints, even the deity Suryanarayan (Sun-god) desires to rise and shine in the East and at night by listening to Podhaniya sung by these saints, Mahaprabhuji sleep into Yogn-Nidra. Such a divine atmosphere remains all the times in these temples.

For transparent, pious and efficient administration of these temples, Shree Hari divided Sampradaya into two Desh and established Dharmvanshi Acharya in His family. It is the idiosyncrasy of Swaminarayan Sampradaya that, seat of Acharya has been established in Grihasthashram. Accordingly, as per the directions contained in the scriptures, saints remain safely away from wealth and woman. As the saints have voluntarily adopted Tyagashram, it is not appropriate to involve them in the administration and therefore Shreeji Maharaj entrusted the task of administration with Dharmvanshi Acharya and the task of rendering services to the deities has been entrusted with the saints and Brahmcharis. Here it is pertinent to note that, as Dharmvanshi Acharya is as the Guru of Sampradaya, only He can grant Mantra Diksha to Mumukshus and thereafter the same Mumukshu can go ahead on the path of Sanyasta. Thus, empowered by Vachan of Shree Hari and after obtaining Mantra Diksha and following the directions of Shree Hari, these saints become Vachan-Siddha.

When Shree Hari got constructed temples, innumerable Bhaktarajs offered their services of mind, body and money and also their immovable properties like lands and buildings at lotus like feet of Shreeji Maharaj. However, none of them have ever claimed any type of ownership upon these temples. They have also not desired to become trustee or treasurer. Kings of that time have also offered great assistance but they have also not asked for the accounts of income and expenses of these temples. All this was being run very smoothly and efficiently by Dharmvanshi Acharya and the saints and Haribhaktas. Nowadays governmental intrusion and disturbance have increased. The persons who have nothing to do with Satsang are sitting as officials. In stead of the divinity of the deities, income of the temple is being given priority. In such a critical time, all of us, as ardent devotee, should not get involved in such matters, but should keep our eyes upon Dev and should cherish ardent faith in Vachan of Shree Hari and should behave accordingly.

For the purpose of administration, Shree Hari Himself has got written Desh-Vibhag Lekh, which is the Constitution of Sampradaya wherein there are clear directions as to how Dharmvanshi Acharya, saints and Haribhaktas should behave and it also contains warning as to what would happen on not doing as per these directions. Each and every Satsangi who has sought shelter of Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan must read this Desh-Vibhag Lekh and must behave accordingly. As per the provisions made in this Constitution, when any Satsangi Haribhaktas has offered any movable thing or property to any deity of either of the two Desh, the said movable property is to be considered as thing of the concerned deity only. Due to ardent faith and devotion towards the deity invoked in both Desh, any movable property or grains, animals are offered towards Thaal, Bhet-Bakshish to any deity, it is said to be offered to the concerned deity and it is considered to be the property of the concerned deity.

If narrated in the language of the present age, it is irrelevant as to in which Desh the person offering Bakshish is residing and it is more important as to which deity Bakshish is offered. Such a Bakshish, when offered to any deity is considered to be the property of the concerned deity.

In respect of immovable properties, it is important as to in which Desh, the immovable property is situated which is intended to be offered in Bakshish. If the immovable property is situated in one Desh, it is considered as immovable property of Dev. Therefore, if any devotee intends to offer any immovable property situated in Narnarayandev Desh to Shree Laxminarayandev, after offering is made, the said immovable property has to be handed over to Acharya of Shree Narnarayandev Desh. While offering anything to the deities, the prudent devotees should keep these provisions of Desh-Vibhag Lekh in their minds so that it becomes convenient and easy to Dharmvanshi Acharya and Administrators of the concerned Desh.

While reminding of the written directions of Shreeji Maharaj, Sadguru Shree Gopalanand Swami shows alertness and care to follow these directions scrupulously in this letter. After five months of return of Shreeji Maharaj to Akshardham, Yogiraj Shri Gopalanand Swami dictates in the letter that anybody who shall breach these directions shall disobey and thereby he will invoke the wrath of the deity. So on careful reading of these words we would find that if these directions are not followed our this world and the world thereafter would certainly be spoilt. A person who would adopt the wrong means and wrong path to become happy in this world will not only be happy in this world but will also not be happy in the divine world of Bhagwan. There are crystal clear words narrating as to what would be the condition of those who would not follow the directions contained in Desh-Vibhag Lekh. So we should always cherish these words of the great man and should also be conscious about the warnings.

Moreover, it has also been dictated in the letter that, Shree Narnarayan, Shree Laxminarayan etc. deities have been invoked by Maharaj Purushottamnarayan and His divinity is always there in these deities. Shree Hari is Incarnation of all incarnations. He is the Master of Anantkoti Brahmand, Controller of the Powers like Kaal-Maya etc. He grants fruits of Karma and is Cause of cause. When we pay attention to His this greatness and grandeur, we would be able to understand the importance of the deities invoked by Him. Swamiji has dictated that, divinity of Purushottam Narayan is in this deity. Therefore, there is nothing which has not been obtained by any devotee through ardent prayer and devout Bhakti. These deities have been offered by Shree Hari to obtain the wealth of this world and Aatyantik Kalyan of the Divine World. Shree Hari has also granted Vachan (the blessings) of fulfilling the desires of the devotees. Prudent and mature devotees should not go away leaving these deities. They should not spoil themselves by shifting their devotion and trust to someone else. This Vachan is of Paratpar Purushottam Narayan and not of Jeev of any Maya. Swamiji has also dictated that, by following this, intention of these deities only would be served and not of anybody else. Therefore, as Haribhakta, we should ask for anything which we want because nothing except as per His Desire would happen. Then why to strive elsewhere meaninglessly? And this should be our central thought. Perhaps our Karma may be very hard and therefore it may take time to get our desires fulfilled but we should not allow our faith to be shaken and should remain happy considering it to be the wish of Maharaj. If it is in our interest, our desire would certainly be fulfilled by the deity and there is no doubt about it. Just we do not have to lose our prudence. If we bow down here and there and adopt Kanthi, Madaliya by accepting anybody as our Guru, it is certain that our this world and the divine world both would be spoilt. Even the great saints and haribhaktas were alert in scrupulously following the directions of Shreeji Maharaj so we should also follow their footsteps.

In the end, Swamiji has dictated in this letter that, this is a Siddhant. Meaning thereby that, whatever has been dictated is Complete Truth and there is no scope for any compromise in it. By thinking about importance of Shree Hari, we should understand the importance of the deities invoked by Him; thereafter we should understand the importance of Dharmvnsi Acharya established by him and then we should read again and again Desh-Vibhag Lekh dictated by Him and should behave strictly as per His directions. This great saint has dictated this letter to inform us this much.

Handwriting of the letter are of Sadguru Shri Shukanand Muni and the letter has been dictated by Yogiraj Shree Gopalanand Swami and this letter is addressed to Sadguru Shri Brahmanand Swami. All these three Sadgurus were the ornaments of Sampradaya, they were Vachan-siddha and they were together in compiling Vachans of Shree Hari in a Granth. Understanding the importance of this letter in this way, this letter has been kept in Shree Swaminarayan Museum for divine Darshan of all Haribhaktas. All the devotees and Haribhaktas should perform divine Darshan of this letter of Prasadi and should read, understand and scrupulously follow the directions contained in it.

OTHER FORM OF BHAGWAN GRANTING HAPPINESS TO HIS OF HARIBHAKTA

Shreeji Maharaj has made a number of provisions for granting divine happiness of His Dham to Anant Jivas. Many temples have been constructed and innumerable Utsav-Samaiyas have been celebrated and many Sadavrats have been initiated. Choryasi of Brahmins have been organized. Brahmins were very dear to Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan. Therefore, Shreeji Maharaj would offer meals to Brahmins and offer them Dakshina time and again. Once Shreeji Maharaj graced the village Nandol and there performed Sankalp to organize Choryasi of Brahmins. Accordingly, leading Brahmins were called for and they were informed about this noble Sankalp. However, there was no unity among them and so they did not follow Vachan of Maharaj and did not attend Choryasi. Immediately, Maharaj called Thakore Haribhaktas of Salki village, offered them Janoi, granted Diksha and made them Brahmins, offered them meals and Dakshina. Only those who are lucky can avail the benefit of divine happiness of Bhagwan. Shreeji Maharaj stayed for one month in village Salki.

“कुषुडक गरुडडरु ररुडने ररवे, कुषुडक गरुडडरु ररत रुकुडे रररुथु डतरु सलकु गरुडे, ररुडु सुडु रररुथु सुडुधरुडे.”

(शुुरी. डुू. रररररु डुषुडडरु डुषु-७)

Shreeji Maharaj used to perform Snan with saints and Haribhaktas in the river Khari. And there is Runmukteshwar Mahadev of Prasadi at the bank of the river Khari. Devotee Dayalibhai Thakor of this place and devote Ratu Khant of village Aadraj would accompany Maharaj at the places where Utsav Samaiya would be performed and would render their services of security at such places. Accepting the ardent request of Dayalibhai Thakore, Shreeji Maharaj had stayed at this place for one month. Thus, village Salki became a fortunate place of Prasadi.

With the directions and blessings of H.H. Shri Laxmiswaroop Gadiwala, our Future Acharya H.H. Shri Lalji Maharaj 108 Shri Vrajendraprasadji Maharaj and H.H. Shri Raja offered meals to all the children of Salki village on 20/10/2014. Thereafter, H.H. SHRI Acharya Maharja and H.H. Shri Raja offered fire crackers and chocolates to all the children on the pious day of Diwali.

It is human tendency that people first think about their own happiness. But here they are Sons of Bhagwan!!! Dharmkul always think about the happiness of the people. The divine vision of Dharmkul does not miss the smallest devotee of the smallest distant village. Therefore, H.H. Shri Gadiwala performed noble Sankalp of offering meals to the children of this small village Salki, whose name may not have been heard even by many devotees.

Houses of the devotees of village Salki may be very small but their hearts are very large and due to their nobility and magnanimity, 8th successor of Bhagwan graced the village and granted divine happiness. Great is the village and devotees of this village!!!

AUDIO-GUIDE POT IN SHREE SWAMINARAYAN MUSEUM

Many devotees and people visited our Shree Swaminarayan Museum during the pious festival of Dipawali. Right from the beginning H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj has been insisting that, none of the visitors of Museum should face any difficulty and as much facilities should be provided to them as it is possible. Accordingly, while following these directions scrupulously, utmost care is taken of each and every visitor of the Museum. Recently, an audio devise has been available for the visitors, which furnishes valuable information about Things of Prasadi kept in the Museum for display and divine Darshan. One application has been developed and installed in a tablet. By taking token fee, this device is provided to the visitors. When the visitors stands in front of Thing of Prasadi, it can be seen on the screen of the tablet through an in-built camera and in the head-phone provided with the tablet, valuable information about the thing can be heard in a beautiful voice in Hindi or English language, as per the language option selected by the visitor. For the first time in the whole world, such a facility has been provided in our Museum and it is a matter of pride for all the devotees and Haribhaktas. In future, famous incidents would be shown through 3-D technology in the same tablet. For example, when chariot of Jitba is seen upon the screen, it would also be shown how Shree Hari would look sitting on the Chariot, how chariot would run etc. Each and every Thing of Prasadi would be explained in detail to the devotees and visitors. To avail the benefit of this devise (Audio Guide Pot), devotees and visitors are required to deposit their original Identity Proof in the Museum. While coming back, ID proof would be returned on depositing the devise. Since this devise and its manufacturing process are very costly, there is nominal fee to avail this facility, which is affordable to all. So now whenever you visit Museum, please use this devise. Jay Shree Swaminarayan.

BHAKTI-SUDHA

FROM THE BLESSINGS OF H.H. SHRI
GADIWALA

‘ONE HAS TO BE ALWAYS ALERT TO LEARN GOOD THINGS’

- Compiled by Kotak Varsha Natvarlal-
Ghodasar

Why do we conduct all these Sabhas? We learn everything which is left out in following our Dharma. When nobody accompanies us, only Dharma is our companion. Dharma is only real friend of a human being. But the difficulty is that, a person expects to get everything without making any efforts for it and that he does not have to face any difficulties for it. When such desires emerge, a man comes across the cheaters in his life and he is cheated by such cheaters. And at such time we behave blindly otherwise nobody dares to cheat us. It is like expecting light while closing our eyes. If we expect light, we should keep our eyes open.

Therefore, we need to be alert. We need to become conscious. We need to open our eyes. Whatever unhappiness comes, it comes through Agyan. Sleep of Agyan is very stormy. Gyan is like lighted lamp. Agyani people are found sleeping from his many previous births. Agyan is total blindness and it increases the pride of a persons and under the impact of this pride he cannot perceive what is right and what is wrong. He cannot differentiate what is good for him and what is bad.

Noble thoughts are like guests. They do not visit our mind until they are invited. And once invited they have to be offered all respect and hospitality like the guests. And like guests, they have to be requested ardently to stay for some more time.

So Satsang is a means to awaken ourselves. If we start snoring in the Sabha of Satsang, somebody awakens us. So to learn good things one has to be always awakened and alert. We come after fifteen days in the Sabha of Ekadashi and completion of the sabha we again sleep back to wake up after fifteen days for the next Sabha of Ekadashi. This is due to Maya and Agyan. Therefore saints, scriptures, temples and Acharya have been established to awaken us from our sleep of Agyan. So we have to make efforts to progress in Satsang. Whatever we think and ponder, has its impact upon mind, thinking pattern and also upon our personality. It also affects our sense organs and nerve system. Once a devotee is awakened through Satsang, nothing can disturb him. So it is an humble prayer at the lotus like feet of Shree Narnarayandev that, our Satsang may be strengthened day by day.

WORSHIP BHAGWAN ARDENTLY

- Patel Labhuben Manubhai (Kundal)

“તમે ભાવે ભજુ જ્યો ભગવાન, જીવન થોડું રહ્યું, કંઈક આત્માનું કરી જ્યો કલ્યાણ, જીવન થોડું રહ્યું.”

Human life is very rare. The Poet Narayandas has established the secret of human life in kirtan :

“મોઘો મનુષ્યનો વારો, ફેર ફેર નહિ મળનારો,
સાઠા દિલમાં વિચારો, સત્સંગ કીજિએ.”

Sadguru Devanand Swami has compared the human body with Chintamani. “મનુષ્યો મનુષ્ય દેહ ચિંતામણી રે....” The wealth of the whole world and even Moksha is the gift obtained through human body. It is like locking and unlocking a lock with the help of a key. Samagam and pleasure of Maharaj and noble persons ensures our Atyantik Kalyan and their displeasure invites destruction and deterioration. So it is in our hand to choose the correct path.

A question regarding the whole human kind has been asked in Tarant-98 of ‘Purushotam Leelamrit Sukh Sagar’

“આવો મનુષ્ય દેહ પામીને, પ્રભુ ભજ્યા નહિ કેમ,
મોક્ષ પામવા કારણે, આપ્યો મનુષ્યનો દેહ.”

Saints grace the houses of the અમરેશ્વરી સ્વામીનારાયણ

devotees. When a question is asked why they do not come to the temple to perform divine Darshan, they answer that they do not get time from their busy schedule. Students have got their own reasons of their study and busy schedule and sometimes the question is answered that Bhajan and Bhakti would be worshipped at the later state of their life. But nobody knows the time of Death and everybody knows that it is certain that one day Death will certainly come.

“કલ કરતા હો તો કર આજ,

આજ કરતા હો તો કર અબ,

આ મૂળ વગરનું ટોકનું ટળી પડશે ટબ,

ફિર કરેગા કબ.”

Just as a young tender branch of a plant can be twisted the way we want. Similarly Bhakti of Bhagwan should be performed at the young age. And therefore, it has been stated in

“કર પ્રભુ સંગાથે દંટ પ્રીતડી રે,

મરી જાવું મેલીને ઘન માલ.”

We should ardent worship Maharaj Who has granted us this very rare human birth and has also granted us this divine Satsang and also offered us convenience to worship Bhagwan. So we have to abandon laziness, procrastination and should worship Bhagwan as much as we can. In one line of Kirtan it has been stated:

“કંઈક આત્માનું કરી લ્યો કલ્યાણ, જીવન થોડું રહ્યું.”

Through Bhajan and Bhakti one can identify and recognize Bhagwan Swaminarayan and thereby one becomes eligible to get divine happiness. In one Pada, Brahmanand Swami has stated :

“મરના મરના સબ કહે, પણ મરી ન જાને કોય,

With the directions of H.H. Shri Acharya 1008 Shri Koshalendraprasadji Maharaj and under the auspices of H.H. Shri Lalji Maharaj 108 Shri Vrajendraprasadji Maharaj ‘Shree Narnarayandev Mahotsav’ has been organized from 24/12/2014 to 28/12/2014. As a part of it, following two programmes are organized and so all the saints and devotees are requested to render their services and to obtain the pleasure of Shreeji Maharaj

OFFERING BLANKETS, WOOLEN CLOTHES TO THE POOR

Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan has given us the directions in the pious ‘Shiksha Patri’ that, ‘We should be merciful towards the poor people.’ Following this direction, we should do something for the poor people and their young children during this winter season of severe cold so that they can protect themselves against the severe cold of the winter season. Accordingly, all the devotees are directed to deposit old blankets (which can be used) and they may purchase new ones and deposit the same with Hari-Mandir or temple with dome of their place. Details of such blankets so accumulated may be furnished to the devotee Shri Kamleshbhai Vasoya Mob No.9328869647 and devotee Shri Chetanbhai Ramani Mob No.9374918312. Details about distribution of the collected blankets would be intimated thereafter.

ARRANGEMENT OF IDOL IMAGES

Our Sampradaya is of Utsav-Samaiya and Tirth-Yatra. All Haribhaktas perform pilgrimage and also participate and render their services during Utsav-Samaiya and resultantly they receive in gift the idol image of Bhagwan from the saints or organization or they may have brought such idol images. After some time, these idol images or pictures get faded and dull or sometimes they are broken and then it becomes difficult for the devotees as to where to keep such faded or broken idol images in their house. As a solution to such difficulties, it has been decided by the temple to make suitable arrangement for appropriate disposal of such idol images. So if any devotees are having any such idol images and pictures and if they want to dispose of them, first of all the same may be collected in Hari-Mandir of their village or place and thereafter they may be deposited with Kalupur temple between 01/12/2014 to 06/12/2014. It may please be noted that, such idol images will not be accepted prior to 01/12/2014. Disposal of idol images and pictures so collected would be made as per the directions of H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj.

Note : Idol images framed in the glass may be sent only after removing the glass.
